AMHERST WON.

Scored Both Firsts in Naval Battalion Meet.

The runners on the track team were defeated Tuesday night by the Amherst men in the forty-yard dash and mile run, for a cup presented by the Second Division, Naval Battalion. The meet was held in the First Regiment armory. It was part of the athletic carnival given by the naval men and consisted of only the two events, the forty-yard dash and the mile run.

The first event run off was the forty-yard dash. Gateson captured the first trial heat in 4 4-5 seconds with a good lead. In the second Bulkeley and Boyd failed to qualify, thus leaving Gateson alone in the finals. In the final heat Ovrell and Gateson ran what appeared to be a dead heat, in fact, all four men were very close, but Ovrell won by not more than an inch.

The mile was one of the best events of the carnival. It was on a 16-lap track and the men started to cut it out at the start. Fallon led for the first half of the race, when Campbell, who was running last, spurred up and led the bunch until there were but two more laps to be run, when White, of Amherst passed him on a spurt, and won handily by ten yards. The time, 5 minutes, 2 seconds, was rather remarkable, considering the size of the track and the character of the corners. The summary:

Forty-yard dash—First heat, won by Gateson, Trinity; E. E. Ovrell, Jr., Amherst, second; time, 4 4-5 seconds. Second heat, won by A. M. Stearns, Amherst, W. P. Hubbard, Amherst, second; time, 5 seconds. Final heat, won by Ovrell; Gateson, second; Hubbard, third; time, 4 4-5 seconds.

Mile run—Won by H. E. White, Amherst; C. A. Campbell, Trinity, second; F. G. Thayer, Amherst, third; time, 5:02.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The German Club will hold its next german on March 6. The first half will be a regular club dance. The second half will be led by C. L. Trumbull, 1908.

The Musical Clubs will give a concert this evening in the First Congregational Church in East Hartford.

DR. LUTHER SPEAKS BEFORE THE S.A.R.

On Washington's birthday President Luther was one of two or three speakers who addressed the Sons of the American Revolution at a dinner in Bridgeport. He spent Wednesday night at Norwich and returned home yesterday after a visit to the Norwich Free Academy.

SUBJECTS FOR THEMES, TRINITY TERM.

No. 1, Due April 30.

Themes to contain at least 1,500 words.

- The question involved in the Hayne-Webster debate.
- The contribution of John Marshall to the national idea.
- Ought not United States Senators to be elected by popular votes in the States?
- The effect of the limitations of the Shakespearian stage on the plays. What stage effects possible?
- Keats as man and poet.
- The social system in Chaucer's day, or what is meant by the system of chivalry?

No. 2, Due May 15

- The character and political influence of Andrew Jackson.
- The reasons for calling Lincoln "great."
- The character and services of John Quincy Adams.
- The function of the poet in human development. Is it terminated or changed?
- The first and second series of the Bigelow papers compared as to (1) subject-matter, (2) vigor and wit.
- Robert Louis Stevenson as story-teller in "Treasure Island" and in "Master of Ballantrae."

The seniors will hand in their graduating orations—subjects optional—on or before April 19. All back themes must be handed in on same date. Failure to do so in either case will seriously jeopardize graduation.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of the Tripod:—

My Dear Sir:—While perusing the columns of a late issue of the Tripod I read the plaintive note of "Economy." In regard to the lighting of the library during the evening hours, it may be said that those who have charge of the expenditure involved by the burning of electricity in the reading room five evenings in each week have as yet raised no objection to the present lighting of the room. A little statistical study of the library attendance reports will reveal what is apparently a woeful non-appreciation of the privileges offered there. It is a fact that only on evenings just preceding tests or "exams" is the reading room well patronized. There is a probability that a juster economy may soon be effective—the opening of the reading room in the evening only before and during such periods.

Very truly yours,

FAIR PLAY.

LETTER FROM CHINA.

Opportunities There for Men in All Branches of Life.

American Church Mission,
District of Hankow,
Jan. 16, 1905.

To the Secretary of the Trinity College Missionary Society, Hartford:

Dear Sir:—I ask you to convey to our College Missionary Society my sincere thanks for the generous offering you have made towards the purchase of land and houses at King-kiang. You have made the largest gift I know of in the history of the society, $222.31. It is a tremendous help to me, and entirely wipes out the debt I incurred, and a little more than completes the $1,000 sum I was responsible for raising. The relief I feel is very great, and so is my gratitude towards the society as a body and towards all individuals who have had part in the offering. In my day we felt the society had done well if it raised $50 a year for a scholarship at St. John's College, Shanghai, and did several little sundry acts of charity in addition. We never approached the sum you have given, within hailing distance. I congratulate you, no less than thank you, upon the success of your efforts to help on an old Trinity man.

I take it that the doubled offering for mission work, indicate doubled interest. Now, will the doubled gifts and interest lead on the vastly-more-needed doubling of Trinity men in the mission field? If Kean College gave the subject of the whole world the consideration such a subject is worthy of—if they would follow along in the magnificent policy of the present administration, backed by the foresight of Secretary Hay, and get at its real significance to the nations of the earth—if they saw (as we in the Far East see) the particular features of Mr. Hay's policy towards the East, and the advantages that are sure to result, both to America and to all Oriental nations—if you realized the surging restlessness of one-fourth of the human race, seeking after light and truth, and felt the momentum of the blow that has struck China and well-nigh overturned her—if you saw the church here absolutely distracted by the very number of demands upon her, which tax her utmost resources in every direction—if you felt the power one single consecrated life in the work here could wield in the moulding of the spiritual, moral and intellectual life of the people—if you heard the Spirit of God saying to you, "Come to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty"—if all this happened, you college men, keen and prepared for the problems which tax the best hearts and brains, would rise up, and make your way to China and Japan to work in the church of God for the regeneration of these great peoples. I don't make any distinction here, between those of you who are preparing for the ministry and those who are not. Clergymen and laymen, almost equally, have an opportunity unsurpassed in Christian history, for applying practically the principles of the religion of the incarnate Son of God, upon a quarter of mankind. Laymen have the opportunity, because the mission work covers every possible department of life and learning. Are you studying medicine? What limit is there to your work in a land like China, almost destitute of a native doctor worthy of the name? Meet Dr. Woodward, if you can, and hear about Ngankin, and his hospital there, or Dr. Tensler of Tokio—both at home now, trying to awaken interest. Read their doings as given in the "Spirit of Missions." Are you preparing to be a teacher? Look at the field offered by St. John's, Shanghai—the greatest college in China—or Boone School, Wuchang. The latter is in the position of having actually money in sight for the college to be added ("Ingle Hall"), and ground for it,—and on the point of sending away present students for lack of teachers. We hope this last step may be averted. But why plan for college work, when the staff of foreign workers is even now insufficient? This school is the finest in Central China. It should have a college department. The district of Hankow, with dozens of primary schools (about fifty in all) scattered over it, with six or seven middle-grade schools, and one high school, has not a college for perfecting its work. We want men for this. Are there none of you, who, after graduation, would give five years, or several of your early life, in helping thus? The Chinese language is not a sine qua non in our higher institutions, and you could come and set to work at once, and do a great work. We are beginning advanced subjects, and a man with any special aptitude (physics, chemistry, literature, athletics, or what not) can find scope for his powers without limit.

Doesn't all this attract you? Don't you have a fancy for doing something well worth while in life? Don't you want to be in the game when it is hard—where all your best powers will be needed to help you to win? Then get into training. The China field is the best gridiron I know of. The game is scheduled, and it will take sturdy fellows to make the goal. You have got heavy opponents—solid, dead weight—but you are quicker. They are undisciplined, and do a lot of fumbling, but if that mass of human beings gets started fairly against you, look out. You must get over the line now, while they are forming, or their wedge will go right through you. The Yellow Peril is only a menace so long as it remains heathen. Face the difficulty now, and when Oriental nations take their place by the side of Western Powers, they will bring with them great and lasting good to all

ALUMNI BANQUET TO-NIGHT.

The Alumni Association of Hartford will give a complimentary banquet to President Luther at the Hartford Club this evening. It is expected that about sixty will be present.

STATE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

Meeting Held in College Library.

The annual meeting of the Connecticut Library Association was held in the college reading room Tuesday. It was attended by about seventy-five members, among whom were Jonathan Trumbull of Norwich, the retiring president; Dr. E. C. Richardson, librarian of Princeton University, and Mr. William I. Fletcher, librarian of Amherst College.

The association met at 10:50 and listened to an address of welcome by Dr. Luther, then after official business, Miss Helen Kilduff Gay, librarian of the New London Public Library, read a paper on "New Books." This was followed by an address by Mr. Fletcher on "The Future of the Catalogue." This was a subject of considerable interest to the librarians, and was followed by much discussion. Mr. Fletcher was heartily in favor of the card catalogue system.

After lunch at Commons and the election of officers, Miss Esther B. Owen of the Hartford Public Library read a paper on "Schools and Libraries."

The following officers were elected:
President—George S. Godard, State librarian.

First vice-president—Prof. John C. Schwab, Yale Library.

Second vice-president—Rev. William H. Holman, Southport.

Third vice-president—Walter Learned, New London.

Fourth vice-president—Dr. Chas. W. Gaylord, Branford.

Fifth vice-president—Miss Louise M. Carrington, Winsted.

Sixth vice-president—Miss Frances B. Russes, Stratford.

Secretary—Mrs. Belle H. Johnson, State Library Committee.

Treasurer—Miss Estelle B. Owen, Hartford Library.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

The freshmen won the annual cannon rush at Wesleyan Wednesday morning. The object of the rush is that the freshmen place the cannon on the campus and keep it there for a half hour or so. This year the sophomores lined every approach to the campus. The freshmen, however, worked a very clever ruse by calling in the aid of the fire companies to make room for them.

It is announced that, under the auspices of the Yale class of 1894, a committee has been appointed to promote a movement for raising funds for five new dormitories at Yale. The plan provides for one dormitory to be given by classes previous to 1865 and four new dormitories by classes representing each of four successive decades.

men. Heathen China is a danger, no less than a shame, to the world. Christian China will be one of the mightiest agents for bringing in the Kingdom of God upon earth.

Many of the Trinity men who have contributed to our Kinkiang work (which, by the way, has been transferred to the oversight of Rev. A. R. Van Meter, Trinity '99,) will not hear this letter of thanks when you read it in the society. I want them to know, also, how much their help has meant to us, and wonder if you can not reach them by printing this letter in "The Tripod." Perhaps, however, you will know the best way, and I leave it to you to make known my thanks.

Wishing the society every success this new year, 1905, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

PROF. EDWARDS' TRIP.

During the examination weeks Professor Edwards made a lecture tour of some extent in the west.

In Cincinnati he spoke in the Grand Opera House. His lecture here was given as one of the Sunday afternoon popular educational course. This lecture course is well known in that city and has been carried on for some twenty-five years. His topic here was "Mammals of the Sea." He showed the evolutionary adaptation of animals to the sea, and pointed out the relation of the fur seal, which is really a sea bear, to the ordinary land mammals.

In Minneapolis Professor Edwards spoke at the Church of the Redeemer on "The Depths of the Sea," and delivered the same lecture at the University Club in Cleveland.

He also spoke to the students of Western Reserve University, presenting to them a "Statistical Study of Evolution." He gave the views of various evolutionists, and their theories and data on variation with an interesting statistical study of variations. He then presented a resumé of the results of his own investigations in which he has shown that for every species studied there is a phase of active evolution. The processes of evolution may be seen actually going on in certain sea animals, as Professor Edwards' work has proved.

Dr. Edwards was well received everywhere, and the college should certainly be proud to be able to send about the country such an eminent biologist. His tour should help to interest new men in Trinity.

It is magazine size, handsomely printed in colors, and costs us 50 cents to produce and mail each copy—but comes to you FREE for the asking.

This book in fact, might justly be called the Smoker's Encyclopedia and will often save you the annoyance of buying cigars you do not like, as a cigar affords a satisfactory smoke only when it suits your individual taste.

Our new Cigar Book is full of information about all kinds of cigars—Imported, Clear Havana, Domestic; about tobacco growing, treating and manufacturing; about cigarettes, pipes and smoking tobacco.

It tells you how and why we can assure you cigars better in quality by 30 to 50 per cent. than the same money can possibly buy in any other way, and enables you to prove this at our expense, without the risk of a single penny.

Our Cigar Book will bring to you all the advantages of our great chain of over 300 retail stores—you have the same stock to select from, and the cigars are delivered, prepaid, at your door at exactly the same prices as sold over our counters.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
